DEATH'S DOINGS.

The death of Robert E. Barrow, which occurred at his residence near town Tuesday morning last at 7 o'clock, removes one of the very best men that ever lived in this or any other community. He came to this country from Clark in 1856, bringing with him his good wife, who was Miss Jane Bush, and locating where they have since made their home, soon became noted for their deeds of love and charity. In 1859 Mr. Barrow professed religion during a revival held by Rev. A. W. LaRue and united with the Baptist Church, of which his wife was already a member. Entering into the true spirit of his faith, he began life of Christian devotion and humble piety, which has ever since characterized him and made him one of the model men of the county. Though no offspring came to bless their union, Mr. and Mrs. Barrow have raised more children and educated as many as any couple of our knowledge. They have always had children with them and no parents were ever more devoted to their welfare than they. For years Mr. Barrow has been the superintendent of the Baptist Sunday-school, to which his whole heart seemed devoted. He knew every little child personally and in his kindly way would greet each of them with a shake of the hand, coupled with some pleasing or cheering remark. He was never absent from his duty and if the day was inclement he would make an early start to church and drive around in his rockaway for those who would have been unable to go from any cause. The section, the church and this school will sadly miss him. His place cannot be supplied. Foremost in every good word and work, he was a model man and a Christian in its fullest sense, and his loving example will live long after his flesh has returned to its mother earth. During the war Mr. Barrow was provost marshal of Stanford and in 1864 enrolled the citizens for draft, in both of which capacities he was guided by a fluid of good sense and a never failing spring of Christian charity. These offices, together with a position in the internal revenue department, held for several years, were his only public service. His death was quite sudden and created much surprise, as well as sincere regret. He was apparently recovering from his attack of paralysis and the doctors had pronounced him out of danger, but Monday night he was taken with terrible nausea and after suffering through the night died next morning. The funeral took place at the church he loved so well Wednesday evening, Rev. George Hunt officiating in an impressive and appropriate manner. Then hundreds of friends followed the remains to Restlawn Spring Cemetery, where all that was mortal of a good man and noble Christian was consigned to dust. He was nearly 60 years of age and leaves a wife nearly as old to grieve for a short time on earth, before joining him in Heaven, to sing forever the praises of the redeemed. May these consciousless cheer her in her lonely sojourn and make her to feel that the Savior is indeed the God of consolation to the widow.

John Gill, Esq., of Lancaster, died Wednesday night of consumption, aged 72. He leaves a wife who was Miss Maggie Kinnard, and four children. His estate is estimated at from $20,000 to $30,000, most of which he accumulated by his own exertions. The funeral will occur this morning at 10 o'clock.

WAYNESBURG.

How to the wife of L. C. Singleton, on the 28th, a girl. This is the first and she appears to be happy.

N. S. Reynolds, for many years a deacon in the Baptist church and one of the oldest Masons in this community, died on the 27th and was buried in Lee's Cemetery by the fraternity. Rev. Wm. Cross, of Somerset, preached the funeral sermon to a large congregation that had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to their deceased friend and brother. He said he was prepared to go and ready for the summons.

We read in the INTERIOR JOURNAL of the 23d that yesterday was the day set for the examination of the candidates for superintendent, but none of them came to time. This was a mistake and Prof. Niles is in justice, as he was not only there but says he felt sure that he answered every question correctly. Miss Kate's friends are trying to make the impression that she only wants the office for the remainder of her father's term. This is untrue, as Prof. Niles would have given her a clear track at any time, with the understanding that she would not be a candidate next year, but she refused to agree to it and said she would run next year also.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs' Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

HUSTONVILLE.

The probabilities are that Miss Kate Beggs will get the largest number of votes that any candidate ever received in this predict.

Mr. Owesley Stanley, of Danville, has been engaged to teach in Christian College next year and will spend the rest of the summer in soliciting for the school.

A party composed of Mrs. George Weatherford, Mrs. Frank Shipman, Misses Sallie and Jessie Cook, Ida, Lizzie and Blanche Twidwell, Messrs. Harry Hocker, Will Weatherford, Carroll Bend and B. C. Weatherford, returned Saturday from a ten days' stay at Cumberland Falls. They report a good crowd there and say if you want to be treated in royal style just go down and give some chance at you this summer.

Miss Ada Taylor, of Dunnville, is visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood. Miss Ida VanArsdale, of Harrodsburg, is visiting her uncle, Mr. C. C. VanArsdale. Miss VanArsdale will have the chair of Belles Lettres in Christian College next year. Miss Besie Moore, of Danville, is visiting the family of Mr. E. McCormick. H. W. Drye left for Caldwell, Kansas, last week to make it his future home. We wish him all the success that his most sanguine hopes have pictured and that he will find many pleasant friends. Brother was popular here and will be missed.

A SIMPLE FISH STORY. A bass weighing one pound in 1880 was returned to the Potomac with a small sleigh bell attached to its tail with a wire. A few days ago it was caught with the bell still attached, the fish weighing six pounds. This may seem like a fish story, but some of our readers may remember that a one-pound bass caught in the eastern branch five years ago was returned to the water with a penny tin whistle attached to its tail. Three years later the bass was caught near the same spot. It still weighed a pound, but the whistle had grown into a fog horn.—New Orleans Picayune.

The hand of your best girl may rest positively in yours, with the assurance that it is yours until death or divorce; the hand of Time may rest lightly and lovingly upon you; the hand of the clock may point to the dinner hour; you may be the handsomest maid in a beauty show; you may be handily enough with your revolver to get the drop on a train robber, but nothing can equal the quiet ecstasy of a hand of four aces when the Jack pot is large and increasing.

It will often be found that cows prefer to drink stagnant water, even almost filthily, from pools, than to take that freshly drawn from the well. It is not the cleanliness of the well that the cows object to, but its coldness. Leave the well water in tubs or troughs exposed to the air a few hours in summer. The cows will drink more freely, give more milk and do better every way for it. Filthy water they should not be allowed to drink, at least while giving milk.

Some of the old inhabitants as they shake their heads say that the weather we have been having very closely resembles that of 1843, when the cholera prevailed so fatally. But there is a difference and those who are apprehensive of the coming of the scourge may find some comfort in it. There were no ties during the "cholera year." This summer the ties are as numerous as ever.

Georgian Times.

Gen. Cassius Clay writes to the Courier-Journal: "Schor is as good a man as Colson, yet I shall vote for Colson." The State has ceased to be a factor in politics. This is a national race after all."

Epitaph For a Shoemaker.

He lives a man
That don't refuse
To make and mend
Your hoots and shoes.
His leather is good.
His work is quick,
His profits are small,
But he gives no tick,
And when he dies
He fears no coals.
As he has saved
So many sales. — Troy Times.

Buckler's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It gives perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 75 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouches for by the residents of the town. I am 71 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from pain and soreness and able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having given me a sound and removed completely all disease and pain. Try a bottle, say $1.00, at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with a severe case of Consumption, began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, a compound of the best medicine on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made. Jessie Middlewart, Dayton, Ohio, says: 'Had it been for Dr. King's New Discovery, I would have died of Lung Troubles as given up by doctors. Am now in best of health.' Try it. Sample bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

A splendid brick hotel and 19 acres in lots for sale. Maret & Cress, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

All democrats should come out early, and work and vote solidly for Sharp, Tevis and Farris.

Twelve years ago yesterday James Maret was installed railroad agent at this place. In that time he has not lost a day by sickness and only 50 days on leave of absence.

Estler Lackey, an obstreperous rooster, who had got it into his head that he could take the town, got on a booze, was arrested, jailed and fined $10, and is now running an Irish buggy, hauling dirt from the jail yard.

The report of the proceedings of the Kentucky Press Association, gotten out by the INTERIOR JOURNAL office, has just been received. It is a highly creditable work and reflects credit on our worthy secretary and his office.

Judge George T. Farris, of Laurel, has announced himself a candidate for the legislature on the democratic ticket and is now making a heroic canvass of this and Laurel counties. Mr. Farris is a man who would reflect credit upon his constituency if elected, and from present indications his friends are led to hope that his race will be crowned with success.

J. J. Bray and family, who moved to Missouri five months since, have returned to Rockcastle. One by one they drop in. They can't stay away. E. T. Fish, who tried Kansas for a month, is with us again after chilling two weeks in the land of the Jayhawker pro-hills. Mechack Gentry while logging a few days ago had a log roll over and seriously hurt him.

Hon. James B. McCreary, W. T. Tevis and Geo. T. Farris spoke to a large audience at the courthouse here Wednesday. Messrs. Tevis and Farris led off with short and pointed and well delivered speeches and was followed by the "People's Congressman," in which State and National issues were discussed in a masterly way and elicited many compliments from all present. The democrats were enthusiastic and happy. They say the republican majority will be cut down a great deal at this election.

From indications and the manner in which our citizens are working in the matter it appears that whisky selling in this place will soon cease. For the past week nightly meetings have been held at the church and various plans have been discussed for ridding the town of the great nuisance. Those engaged in the traffic were waited upon by committees, who requested them to discontinue the sale of spirits, with a promise that if they did so the influence of the community would be brought to bear on the Commonwealth's attorney to file away any indictments that might be found against them next court, but if they persisted all efforts would be made to bring them to justice. John Proctor, who had a house near the depot, at once closed his establishment. Tom McClure, who kept in the "oldfields," did not heed the warning and was arrested, fined and is now behind the bars. The only remaining establishment in town is lying low and is being constantly watched. A law and order league has been formed to push the work so well begun. Whisky will have to go.

It will often be found that cows prefer to drink stagnant water, even almost filthily, from pools, than to take that freshly drawn from the well. It is not the cleanliness of the well that the cows object to, but its coldness. Leave the well water in tubs or troughs exposed to the air a few hours in summer. The cows will drink more freely, give more milk and do better every way for it. Filthy water they should not be allowed to drink, at least while giving milk.

Mr. H. E. Woolcock, editor of the Advocate, is rusticating on the shores of Lake Michigan, his chair is being filled by Mr. Joe S. Moore, the brilliant young editorial writer who also as secretary secounds with equal ability the proceedings of republican conventions. To Mr. Moore's credit, he is said, he is doing his work with ability and marked vigor just on the eve of an election.

—There are a few odd white men in Harrodsburg not very "technical." Mr. Robert Mayes, a distinguished colored citizen of Danville, went there Tuesday with his barouche to haul passengers to and from the fair grounds. He was met on the street shortly after his arrival by several large-shouldered men, one of whom said, "You are the blank, blanket yellow son of a black who held Evan Warren while a nigger killed him. Get out of town; we'll give you just five minutes to do so." Bob reports that he didn't use up all of his five minutes before he "got out."

—To answer to Miss Lena Hamilton's breach of promise suit for $15,000 at Maysville, J. J. Shackson alleges that he was at the time he refused to marry plaintiff, afflicted with a loathsome disease of such nature that it must necessarily have been communicated to plaintiff, and probably to their offspring, should he marry and avail himself of his conjugal rights.

—Suit has been brought in the U. S. court at Covington against B. B. Nugent, of Barboursville, for $2,000 for refusing to fill his contract to furnish Farrin, of Cincinnati, 750,000 feet of lumber after having contracted to do so and receiving $25 of the money.

The increase in internal revenue receipts for the year ended June 30, 1889, over those of the preceding year, were $1,568,957. The total receipts were $130,855,432, and the cost of collection $1,185,000, or 3.2 per cent, the same as the year before. Illinois leads the list, with $1,07,419, and Kentucky comes next, her share being $16,910,814. The Kentucky districts collected as follows: Second, $1,468,272; Fifth, $8,866,882; Sixth, $3,406,910; Seventh, $2,019,001; Eighth, $1,119,712.

—After Bilger was informed of Gov. Buckner's refusal to interfere he came near killing himself by tying a handkerchief around his neck and when discovered tried to beat his brains out. He was then ironed hand and foot and kept so till the fatal hour. When placed in iron he beat himself over the head with his handknives and tried in every way to injure himself. He fought like a demon and cursed and swore like the ungodly wretch he was.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

A splendid brick hotel and 19 acres in lots for sale. Maret & Cress, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

All democrats should come out early, and work and vote solidly for Sharp, Tevis and Farris.

Some one slipped into the residence of P. Mannin Tuesday and stole a fine gold watch belonging to Mrs. Mannin.

J. C. Masonheimer (Trapper) left on Wednesday for Lexington, where he will take the road for a wholesale tobacco house.

Rowland & Thiele will shortly move into the spacious store-room recently vacated by E. Flagg's jewelry store on Main street.

The trial of W. W. Taylor for shooting Pardon, referred to in our last letter, ended on Monday by the accused being held in $250 to answer at next term of the Boyle circuit court.

Mr. William Warren, president of the Danville & Hustonville Turnpike, has ordered from a Cleveland, O., firm a steel iron bridge to span Knob Creek, a little north of Millidgeville.

It is quite likely the prosecution will be ready for trial on Saturday, of Beattyville, charged with the murder of Evan S. Warren. It is not known what preparation the defense has made.

M. L. Eddy expects to complete his telephone line between this place, Mitchellsburg, Parksville and Perryville this week, and we can then get the vote of Boyle county soon after the polls close.

Mr. J. M. Wallace and wife will in a few days leave for a two weeks' sojourn at Atlantic City. Mr. John S. Bangham will entertain friends at his home on the evening of the 5th, in honor of Misses Smith.

One hundred thousand pounds of hemp, belonging to Judge J. K. Sunaral, and valued at $5,000, together in the building in which it was stored, were destroyed by fire Tuesday about 7 o'clock. Nothing is known as to the origin of the fire.

Mr. P. A. Marks and daughters are spending a few days at Limetta Springs. Misses Lettie and Nellie Berkbank and brother Sam, of Atlanta, Ga., were expected in Danville Thursday to spend the remainder of the heated term with their aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Irwin.

The Central Kentucky Fair begins next week and promises to be one of the best yet held in Boyle county. Quite a number of horses are entered for the trot, prominent among them are the Maceys' string, whom it will be remembered won several purses here last year with their phenomenal trotter—Bisque Bonita.

Vote the Straight

Democratic Ticket.

For State Treasurer,

STEPHEN G. SHARP.

For State Senator,

R. J. BRECKINRIDGE.

For Legislature,

R. C. WARREN.

For Constitutional Convention?

YES.

The prohibition candidate for the legislature is not running on a moral question, but as the representative of a distinct political organization, with a platform endorsing woman suffrage and other dogmas. In its expression of principles the so-called prohibition party is as much at variance with the teachings of the democratic party as those of the republican party. It is in fact a separate and distinct organization, seeking political ascendancy and bent on obtaining the spoils incident thereto. Under this State of case, can any democrat vote for Eld. Montgomery? This is not an election on the prohibitory law. Should that question ever come up again each democrat can vote as his experience and his conscience dictate. But now the simple point is 'Shall democrats give up principle and party fealty to a few misguided preachers and cranks in breaking up the party which has weathered the storms of an hundred years and sent scores of just such attempts to grass?' A vote for Montgomery in this contest is a direct vote against the democratic party and every republican with prohibition proclivities will feel it his bounden duty to vote for him with that view. The entire effort of the prohibition leaders has been against the democratic party, with the apparent intention of breaking it up and putting republicanism to the front, as evidenced by their coquetry with the bosses before the nomination of a candidate. Can democrats vote for or with such a party, especially since Mr. Warren is their regular nominee and as such deserves their support? We believe not. A vote for Mr. Warren is a vote for clean and honest democracy and a man who can and will serve his county and State with ability in legislative halls. Let every man of the party rally to his support.

There have been lots of censusing among the republican bosses during the last week and if there is not something up we are badly mistaken. It may be that all their endeavors will be directed towards getting out a full vote for Colson as possible, but we have reasons to believe that steps are being made to slip up on Judge Breckinridge in his race for the Senate. Lawyer Davison is suggested as the man, his peculiar gift for the sneak-act especially recommending him to his party. The idea will be to lay low till the morning of the election and then have some one in each precinct of the four counties to place the name of their candidate on the poll books and by concerted action elect him. But we do not believe the scheme will work. It is pretty certain that the colored members of Lawyer Davison's party cannot be driven to his support in this county and without them he could not rally a corporal's guard. But all the same, every democrat who loves his party and wishes its success, will be out at the polls and throttle any attempt to defeat our nominees—Sharp, Breckinridge and Warren.

A man can be a good democrat as the best one and yet favor prohibition. It is not prohibition, however, that we are fighting in this contest, but political prohibitionists, who are endeavoring to rise into power by thrusting a purely moral issue into a political campaign and by working the sentimental racket endeavoring to draw democrats from the path of rectitude. Vote as you choose, democrats, on a purely prohibition question, but stick to your party when its principles are involved and show the woman suffragists and the advocates of other as repugnant dogmas, that you are made of sterner stuff than to be wheedled into deserting it. Vote for Dick Warren and you will always have occasion to be proud of it.

There is no announced opposition to Judge Breckinridge, though it is possible the republicans will spring a candidate on the day of election. In order to circumvent any attempt to sneak up on our nominee, it is best to run no risk. The still hunt game wont work, if democrats are alive to their duty, which we believe they are, and will go to the polls and vote the ticket from a to z.

The republicans of Fayette have nominated Civil Engineer Gunn against J. H. Mulligan for the Senate. But he is hardly loaded sufficiently to go off in time to get away with slippery Jim.

This law has been vindicated and the brutal murderers, Dilger and Smart, have paid the penalty. Smart was worked off very neatly, but a miserable botch was made in Dilger's case, the noose failing to work in the first effort, and necessitating a second hanging. This looks very much like retributive justice. He killed two men and was hung once for each murder. Smart, who killed Meissner Green and Belle Ward on a boat on the Ohio river, protested his innocence to the last and put on a powerful show of christian resignation and anxiety to be at rest. He met death without murmur and without flinching. Dilger spent the day before his execution in trying to kill himself. Failing, he pretended to have done forgiveness, but he died like the dog he was. He murdered policeman Rosenberg and Jones and from his very infancy was a veritable fiend in human shape, and seems to have been born to adorn a gallows. After the failure of the rope to do its work by reason of the knot getting partially untied and catching him under the chin, he was drawn back by the neck through the trap and another rope adjusted. He was perfectly conscious and when placed the second time on the trap, stepped back when it shook, saying, "This thing will fall with me." The work of the second rope was almost as bad, for it caught wrong and took it just 24 minutes to strangle the brute to death. Two executions were nevermore deserved and the fate of the murderers will have a tendency to increase the value of human life, for years he has so cheaply in Kentucky.

JUDGE SHARP's management of the treasury since Gov. Buckner called him to the difficult job of getting its affairs in a proper condition, has demonstrated the wisdom of our excellent governor in selecting him. The democrats in convention assembled endorsed his action by nominating him for election next Monday and every democrat owes it to the old governor and to himself to express his hearty endorsement of a splendid official by voting for Judge Sharp. He is honest and true, has been tried and not found wanting and can be depended on in any emergency. On the other hand Mr. Colson is a young fellow, with more ambition than knowledge, more presumption than prudence, is running simply to make himself solid with the powers that be and is being running simply because he is willing and has the money and time to make the race. There is hardly a possibility of his election, but if he reduces the democratic majority it will be a feather in his cap and give him the precedence that he seeks. It is the duty of democrats to cut the wing feathers of this avaricious bird by giving Judge Sharp 50,000 majority.

Because one democrat went wrong republicans are trying to create the impression that no democrat is worthy to fill the office of State treasurer. This is the veriest bosh and unworthy the consideration of sensible people. How could it possibly benefit Kentucky, whose credit under democratic rule is as good as any State in the Union, to elect an inexperienced Bell county youth to preside over our treasury? Democrats can not better answer this question than by showing at the polls that they are averse to handing over the State to republican rule on such flimsy and lying arguments as their leaders advance.

The Owensboro Messenger asks a question which is more easily propounded than expounded, when it inquires "Why is not John G. Carlisle in Kentucky assisting his party in the State campaign, instead of touring in Mexico?" Kentucky democracy has ever made an idol of Carlisle, yet he has been the most selfish politician we have ever produced. When did he ever put his shoulder to the wheel in a State campaign? We give it up. If he has ever done anything for the party in the State that has always sought to honor him, we fail to remember the incident.

It is very evident that the commission appointed to investigate the affairs of Tanner's pension office was selected with a view of whitewashing him, but it will not work. Congress meets in December and the democrats will be of sufficient strength in that body to demand, and they will do so, a full and fair investigation. Tanner had best get in his work prior to then, for as sure as shot his anatomic day will end, when an honest commission gets hold of him.

GEORGE T. FARRIS, one of the best of democrats and cleverest of men, is out for the legislature in Laurel and Rockcastle counties, and is making a vigorous canvass. If the people of that district want a man of the strictest integrity and undoubted capacity to represent them in the triennial Assembly, George Farris is the man. Let the democracy rally to his support.

The democracy of Lincoln has never had a more conscientious, faithful and earnest advocate of the people's cause to vote for than Dick Warren. He is a democrat in principle, faith and practice and was nominated by democrats. You will be false to yourself and false to the party to which you owe allegiance if you do not go to the polls and cast your vote for him.

Colson offers $5,000 for proof of the charges that his brothers are assassins and defamers, when it seems to us that that is the last thing he would want.

The Louisville Times tells this tale of the remarkable reportorial and mechanical celerity and skill in its extra telling of the hanging: "The first drop fell at 6:05 and the second at 6:08. At 6:15 the last form, containing more than a column bona fide account of the actual hanging, was sent to the stereotypers, and 15 minutes later the printed paper was on the street. Of this edition 27,000 were sold. A second edition containing six columns of graphic matter, every line written and put in type after the first issue, appeared at 9 o'clock, and of this several thousand additional copies were purchased by ravenous readers. In rapidity of conception and promptness of delivery, these two issues of the Times stand unapproached in the production of journalism."

TATE's actual delation was $247,128.30, but of this amount enough has been paid to reduce it to $175,042.50, some of which will be realized on the 1. 1. Us, and the balance from his suities, if the courts do their duty. The republicans state the amount at $250,000, but say nothing of the credits. The case is bad enough anyway, but it is just as well to state the exact amount as to lie about it.

Born parties have declared in favor of a constitutional convention, so that question has been relegated from political discussion. It is the opinion of most sensible men that the old constitution adopted in 1850 has long since outlived its usefulness and they will therefore vote for the call.

E. & H. Bachelor & Co., Boston's largest boot and shoe dealers, have gone under for $1,250,000.

John L. Sullivan is in jail in New York awaiting a requisition from the governor of Mississippi.

Col. J. F. Buckner, the first Internal Revenue collector in the Louisville district, was stricken with paralysis and will die.

The Hon. T. B. McClure, a prominent West Virginia republican, has been arrested for assaulting a lady of high standing.

The Standard Oil Co. is said to have gathered in all the white lead companies in the U. S. the estimated amount being $60,000,000.

Owing to heavy disbursements, $15,250,000 of which went to pensions, the public debt reduction last month was less than a million.

B. F. Caldwell and J. F. Riley, of Merriek, the former postmaster at Hoopole, are under arrest charged with defrauding the government of $575.

Chicago is to be supplied with natural gas from the Indiana field, a distance of 158 miles. Every contract is let for the completion of the work by November.

Including the accession of the Bee Line and Big Four's 1,126 miles of road, and the Chesapeake & Ohio's 1,039 miles the Vanderbilts now control 13,488 miles of track.

At Fort Springs, during a quarrel, Walter Trimble shot Charles Shelly through the heart; both colored. Trimble was captured and lodged in the Lexington jail.

The report that Mary Anderson is in an insane asylum is denied point blank. So is the other report that she is a hopeless mental wreck. We hope the denials are correct.

The Louisville Southern at Louisville ran over and killed Mrs. Amy Becker and Henry Pfister and dangerously wounded Wm. Schick, who were driving in a wagon.

John Morgan, John Ferguson and William Day are under arrest at Broad Ripple, Ind., for cruelty to a balky mule, whose tongue they pulled out in the effort to make it move.

At the hanging in Louisville, one anxious individual climbed upon a telegraph pole overlooking the jail yard at 3 o'clock and remained in his uncomfortable perch until all was over.

The pay of the president, vice-president, and the cabinet amounts to $355 a day. The whole kettle of fish, save two, are absent from their posts now, but the pay goes right along as if they were at work.

W. C. Elam, a renegade Virginian, who has obtained some notoriety by reason of a duel or so, has been given the place of Chief of Division of Railroads in the Land Office. He formerly edited the Wile at Richmond.

A party of 125 teachers of the North Carolina Teachers' Association chartered a steamship for a trip to Europe and sailed Saturday. They will visit Glasgow, Edinburgh and Paris and return August 20th.

Wm. T. Coleman, of California, for merly a timid candidate for the democratic nomination for the presidency, last week sold his large mining interests in Shasta county, Cal., to an English syndicate for $2,000,000.

James Robinson sold to a Fayette county party a bay gelding for $190.

It was $10 of course and not $50 that Mr. J. Blain got for his black Berkshire sow.

—Isaac Herrin, of Rockcastle, bought of J. L. Anderson a pair of young mares for $255.

Pierce Combest, of Casey, sold to John W. Allen of the West End, 11 head of 3-year-old cattle at $2 cents.

H. J. Darst's Stella trotted 6th at Harrodsburg Tuesday, Cecil's May W. winning three straight mile heats in 2:34 to 2:43.

The fast pacing stallion, Sir Thurming, valued at $15,000, was found dead in his stall at Joliet, Ill. Death was caused by sudden cooling off.

A careful estimate of the crops in Minnesota and North and South Dakota shows that these States will probably yield 80,000,000 bushels of wheat.

Cattle are quiet in Cincinnati at 1 to 4, bottoms to tops; hogs are lower and dull at 3 to 4 to 6 to 8; sheep are in demand at 3 to 4 and lambs weak at 3 to 6.35.

James Guthrie, of Shelby county, sold 100 miles to New Orleans buyers at 14 cents a pound, August delivery. He expects to make the average about $190.

The Lexington Fair begins Aug. 27 and lasts five days. The premium list is comprehensive and liberal and there will be two races a day. See ad. in this issue.

—Paladine, record 2:32, died at the Sherman Farm, New York. He was buried by Ryslyk's Hamletonton and was one of the handsomest horses in the country.

A horse over 19 hands high and weighing 2,300 pounds, was shipped from Meyerstown, Pa., to Boston recently. The purchaser will put the animal on exhibition.

—Joe Kimbrough, of Harrison county, threshed 334 sacks of wheat from 20 acres making 44 bushels per acre. The field was measured and was in tobacco last year—Paris news.

At the sale of trotting horses, mares and colts belonging to the Dorsey's of Jefferson county, 33 brought an average of $450. Lizzie Mack, a 4-year-old Nantucket filly, brought $2,000.

—Colyer & Rice bought in Madison 3,000 sheep at $3 to $3.25. C. H. Cheinl bought a third interest in the Bonanza Mills for $10,750 and the new firm will be Forman, Chenarlt & Co.—Clymax.

—There have been 147 additions to the 2:30 list this year up to July 16, against 110 at a corresponding period last year. The fastest mark for a trotting new-comer is 2:22 for Bismarck and for a pony 2:16 by Sir Archy.

—The $51,000 stallion, Bell Boy, was given his first fast work at Lexington Monday, in which he easily trotted a half mile in 1:10, the last quarter in 0:34. He is being trained to lower the 4-year-old record, Manzanita's mark, 2:16.

—The Madison County Fair will be Aug. 13-17. Assistant Secretary W. P. Walton.

—John C. Gault, General Manager, will be an exhibition mile by Susie S.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Dr. A. S. Price is here for a few weeks.

Mrs. BIRCH JONES is summering at Rye Beach, N. H.

Mr. W. R. MASTERS, of Nashville, joined his wife late yesterday.

Mrs. MARTHA EDNEY, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. J. M. Beszley.

Miss IDA PREWITT has returned from a week's visit at Williamsburg.

Miss SALLIE BARKER, of Lexington, is the ghost of Miss Allie Hubble.

Miss MOLLIE FINE, of Richmond, has been the guest of Miss Annie Hale.

Mrs. BENEDICT SPALDING and boys, of Lebanon, are visiting at Col. T. P. Hill's. Mrs. FERHILL was called to Lily by the illness of Mrs. B. F. Dawson's little child.

Mrs. MILDRED and Miss Williams, of Danville, were visiting Mrs. James Martin.

Mrs. W. L. ROBINSON, of Louisville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Roberts.

Mrs. J. W. BROWN and mother, of Mt. Vernon, were down Wednesday to see Dr. Hoffman.

Misses MOLLIE FINE, Alpha Fyrene and Annie Hale went to the Harrodsburg fair yesterday.

Misses ANNE SHANKS and MARY McKNIGHT are visiting Miss Nancy Bagland at Winchester.

Mr. WILL C. WICHERRIT has secured a position in Kansas City and his wife has joined him there.

Mr. JOHN H. CRAIG has returned from a protracted tour of the State in the interest of his business.

Miss MURIE KING, of Bryantsville, is here with friends, on her return from Dripping Springs.

Mrs. T. W. GINGER, of Louisville, is up to see her brother Harry, who is still very low with typhoid fever.

Major J. B. OWENS took a trip to Richmond Wednesday in search of the negro Blanks, who escaped from jail.

Mrs. T. W. BROWN is at her son's, R. H. Brown's, with his sick child, which was somewhat improved yesterday.

FRANK S. MORTON, of Athens, Ga., is here to see one of the lovely young ladies who is just now paying Stanford a visit.

Mrs. S. H. KING and daughter, Miss Sallie, of Danville, returned Wednesday, after a week's stay at Crab Orchard Springs.

Misses CLARA THOMPSON, Ophelia and Clara Lackey and Annie Jennings, are spending a few days at Crab Orchard Springs.

Mrs. ROBERT H. CRAGAN, went to Lincoln county Monday to spend a week with relatives and friends, — Lebanon Standard.

MISS MAGGIE PARKS, of Elizabethtown, who has been visiting Rev. Ben Helm, returned Tuesday and he accompanied her as far as Louisville.

An operation was performed on Mrs. Dr. Simp Elkin Tuesday afternoon, which gave her great relief, and she was a little improved yesterday.

Mrs. T. R. WALTON is somewhat improved, W. M. Bright is much better, Warren Hocken is worse, his sister, Miss Jennie, is doing tolerably well, Will Wallace is very low and Mrs. Ramsey is better. There are no new cases of sickness that we have heard of.

The plaguey types got Mrs. before Mr. Horace M. Taylor's name in our notice of the Parks Hill camp meeting. Mr. Taylor is in charge of the Deposit Bank of Carlisle and is a very excellent gentleman with many friends, several of whom have asked us if he had married again as would be implied by the erroneous notice.

CITY AND VICINITY.

I HAVE just received a nice line of suits and patterns for Fall wear. Come in and make your selection. H. C. Hause.

Lots.—Mrs. Catherine Bailey has for sale some lots in the Miller Extension House and lot now occupied by W. H. Miller; also No. 1 horse and buggy.

The booth privileges of the Danville Fair were awarded to our townsmen, Mr. S. S. Myers, and he is now busy making arrangements to go thither with an inexhaustible supply of everything to eat.

So far as the INTERIOR JOURNAL is concerned the canvas is ended. We have tried to do our duty and if the democracy will do theirs all will be well. We shall be glad after this to let up on politics and resume the even tenor of our way.

THE C. &amp; O. will run another Old Point excursion Aug 5th, at $12 from Lexington.

Buy a can of Slush Shot for 25cts, and kill the bugs on your cabbage. T. Metcalf.

JUDGE SAUFLEY offers his attractive Stanford residence and five acres of land for sale. See notice in this issue.

Those who have not paid their accounts with us will please call and settle. We need the money and must have it. Curtis &amp; Cox.

I am still the agent for the celebrated Dick's Patent Feed Cutter, the most satisfactory cutter that has ever been sold. Any size can be had, from hand to horse power. T. Metcalf.

CONSTRUCTION trains are now being run over the Cumberland Valley road between Pineville and Cumberland Gap and the road will soon be transferred to the transportation department.

The Parks Hill camp meeting excursion train will leave Rowland at 5:30 A. M. Sunday and arrive at Rowland returning at 8:30 P. M. Fare for the round trip for all stations this side of Winchester, $1.50.

Mr. BARROW was a poor financier and never accumulated much, though he spent his life in toil. His estate will pay his immediate debts and leave his wife the $2,000 insurance which he held on his life in the Kentucky Mutual.

If you honestly believe that the majority should rule, whether it votes your way or not, you can not say so plainer than by voting for Dick Warren. A vote for Montgomery means that no majority is right which does not conform to the ideas of the I am Heber than Thurrow.

It is hardly probable that the rails can work the game they did two years ago successfully, but trained soldiers are not caught napping. The fact that they did it once ought to nerve every democrat to do his duty of voting for our nominee and seeing that everybody under his influence does likewise. Warren's majority ought to be fully 2,000.

Miss KATE BOGIE has been her father's principal assistant during the time he was school superintendent and often did all the work, the health of his latter days rendering him unable to perform it. She is worthy and capable to succeed him and she and the family need the salary that would have been her father's had he lived. Every man that believes she is entitled to it will honor himself by honoring her with his vote.

One of the most pleasant meetings the "Merrie Kid Crowd" has had was held with Misses Clara and Ophelia Lackey at Hon. A. L. Lackey's residence Tuesday night. A large number gathered and enjoyed themselves as they chose, some at cards, some at dancing, while the more quiet preferred the tete-a-tete. The Misses Lackey, assisted by Miss Clara Thompson, of Louisville, and Miss Annie Jennings, of St. Louis, entertained delightfully and each young heartbeat joyously over the success of the third club meeting as they went to their various homes in the wee sun's hours of the morning. The elegant lunch was under the supervision of Mrs. Lackey and was one of the special features of the entertainment. Some 15 couples of young people were present and angled to their hearts' content after the wee tin fishes, which were placed in a vase and which proved a difficult task to capture. A handsome vase was given as a prize to the one getting the largest number, and it was won by Miss Moore. Clarence Tice secured the second prize, a handsomely painted shovel, and Dick Denny the third—a jew's harp. Refreshments were served at 11 from that till nearly 1 the merriment continued.

To a man up a tree it looks very much as if the Waddle Bros. Base Ball Club would like to crawl out of playing the INTERIOR JOURNAL the rub game at Danville. They claim that our boys should come to their town, when it was a Somerset gentleman who suggested Danville as a place to settle the tie. They also include Archer, professional, residing at Burnside, in their team, when it had been agreed to all around that only home talent should be used. Another excuse is that Bud Waddle is very sick. Of course we are pained at the announcement of his sickness, but to save our lives we can't see how it can or will interfere with the game when he has never played and has been present at only two of the four games the I. J. As. have played the Waddle Bros. Now, gentlemen, we suggest a putt up or shut up game and that you either play the fifth and tie game at Danville some day in the near future with only home players, or keep quiet on base ball for a season at least.

OFFICERS of the election will confer a great favor by letting us have the result of their precincts by telegraph as often and as early as possible.

A MAN offered to bet yesterday that Bro. Montgomery would not carry a single precinct in the county, but he evidently forgot McCormick's meeting-house.

THERE will be a grand picnic at Kingsville to-morrow, Saturday. R. C. Warren and other candidates will speak and the rest of the programme will consist of dancing and a match game of ball between the Kingsville and Waynesburg nines.

Owing to the serious illness of his sister-in-law, Mr. Warren was unable to go to Hustonville Tuesday night. A good crowd was present and Eld. Montgomery showed a becoming spirit of fairness and courtesy by not taking advantage of the occasion and delivering an address.

THE JAILER of Jessamine county wrote Mr. S. M. Owens that a negro answering the description of Burdett Blanks, who recently made his escape from him, is confined in the jail there. He was arrested in Nicholasville on a charge of crap playing. Mr. Owens went after him yesterday.

GEORGE W. GENTRY says the respectable colored men will refrain from voting in the legislative race, but the negroes that they will show him a few things. Answering our question "Why are you so anxious to keep them from voting?" he said, "If the democrats get hold of them at all they will take them from us entirely and Colson will get left."

Mr. S. L. POWERS, senior member of the firm of S. L. Powers &amp; Co., will be in charge of the business in Stanford until September 1st, commencing a special cut price sale prior to important changes in the business. P. A. PITMAN, the well-known dry goods evangelist, is now in town, assisting S. L. Powers &amp; Co. in making some changes in their business here and at Hustonville. The Hustonville store will be discontinued and the two consolidated at Stanford.

A NEGRO who has heretofore voted the straight out republican ticket told us yesterday that he would vote for Dick Warren if his race refused to recognize him; his church turned him out or even if his family disinherited him. Said he: "The republicans have plead with me to keep quiet in this election and the prohibitionists have begged me to support Montgomery, but I will heed neither, for I am not only going to vote for Warren, but am going to work for him from dawn to darkness on Monday next."

THE PROGRESSIVE ANGLING PARTY given by Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Givens Tuesday evening in honor of their guests, Misses Moore and Jameson, of Paris, proved a very interesting and pleasant entertainment. Some 15 couples of young people were present and angled to their hearts' content after the wee tin fishes, which were placed in a vase and which proved a difficult task to capture. A handsome vase was given as a prize to the one getting the largest number, and it was won by Miss Moore. Clarence Tice secured the second prize, a handsomely painted shovel, and Dick Denny the third—a jew's harp. Refreshments were served at 11 from that till nearly 1 the merriment continued.

THE GENTLER SEX.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton is 74 years old.

Rose Terry Cooke began to keep a diary when she was 10 years old.

Octave Thanet (Miss Alice French) draws all her characters from real life.

Wealthy English ladies often send money to the United States for investment.

A mile race has been run in Russia by two women. One wore corsets and the other did not.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt receives morning visitors in a white satin negligee and slippers to match.

The authorities in Holland have decreed that women cannot serve on a school board. In Sweden it has been decided that they can.

The queen of England seldom drinks more than one small glass of wine at dinner, and afterwards takes a few drops of good Scotch whisky.

Lady Kortright has sent over to America a check for $5,000 to complete the church at Snow Hill, Md., built as a memorial of the first Presbyterian church in America.

Lady Sandhurst, who may be obliged to give up her labors in the county council, has under her charge twenty-three baby farms, three lunatic asylums and several schools.

Three ladies who have recently taken the platform in England are Mrs. Fry, the wife of an M. P.; Mrs. Spence Watson and Mrs. Dale, the daughter of Sir Frederick Milbank.

Miss Rhoda Broughton says that she was inspired to novel writing by reading Miss Thackeray's "Story of Elizabeth," and learning that it was written by a woman as young as herself.

Mary B. Russell, a sister of Sir Charles Russell, was a pioneer Sister of Mercy on the Pacific coast. She came to America in 1854, and has at present under her charge a hospital, a Magdalene asylum and schools near San Francisco.

Laura C. Holloway, the author of "Ladies of the White House," etc., is a Tennesseean by birth, was married at 14, and has been a journalist since she was 17 years old. She is a Buddhist in faith, and said to possess extraordinary powers as a medium. She wants to be cremated.

Mrs. Murfree (Charles Egbert Craddock) was an invalid as a child, and it is said that her mother used to comfort her for her inability to play out of doors with other children by saying: "Never mind, my dear, if you can't play as the others do you can do one thing which they can't do—you can spell Popocatapetl."

The women attached to the German embassy are very popular in Washington. They are working hard to acquire an English education. They have their own parlors, in which they receive their lady callers, but no gentlemen. Gentlemen calling with ladies in their party are received by the men of the legation, while the ladies are invited up stairs to meet the German wives in their own apartments.

PARASOL DESIGNS.

Black horn or olive crooks, with silver trimmings, make very handsome handles for sunshades.

Silver trimmings and mountings on olive wood, green ebony, horn and Hungarian ash make very handsome handles. Knobs and crooks, with spiral flutings alternating with rows of bosses also spirally arranged, make very pleasing handles.

Acacia wood is smooth, takes a high polish and is beautifully mottled in light olive green and fawn color, making a very handsome stick for many colors.

Handles in various shapes, and mainly with smooth surfaces, are overlaid with solid silver plates, elaborately engraved with handsome patterns of floral or roccoco design.

Wooden handles, of carved boxwood and ebony, boxwood of natural color or browned, with silver trimmings, and bamboo sticks decorated in the same way, are very popular.

A lovely effect in a "directoire" handle, for example, is of white enamel, with silver bands and etched silver knobs, the colored silk covers being supported by silver ribs which show on the inside.

Onyx, silver and wood make a very handsome handle, the translucent veining of the onyx, together with its soft, delicate tints of white, yellow and rose, being heightened in effect by the etched silver band which connects it with the corrugated stick above.

BITS OF SCIENCE.

The efforts made to introduce European vegetables and fruits in the Congo states have been rewarded with very great success.

About 150 colors are now obtained from coal tar, which has almost entirely supplanted vegetable and animal dyes.

Recent discoveries made by the use of the spectroscope show that all the heavenly bodies appear to be composed of the same chemical elements.

A new model based on scientific principles has recently been constructed in England illustrating the formation of ocean currents in general and of the gulf stream in particular.

Helmholtz has shown that if an invisible jet of steam be electrified or heated, it becomes visible with bright tints of different colors, according to the potential or the temperature.

A metallurgist gives us a reason why steel will not weld as readily as wrought iron that it is not partially composed of cinder, as seems to be the case with wrought iron, which assists in forming a fusible alloy with the scale of oxidation formed on the surface of the iron in the furnace.—New York Times.

HUMBLE.—Alex. C. Carman sold some leathers to R. L. Snow at 3 cents. Millard Ware is paying us a visit this week. Our papers came in on Tuesday morning early via Lancaster. Send them that way again, Mr. W. P., and we will give Ware a majority, money or no money, flour or no flour, whisky or no whisky. G. P. Bright and G. A. Swinebroad are in the mountains buying sheep. J. W. Bright is fixing to apply for a patent on ice cutter. Several cattle sold here this week to Woods for 21 and 22 cents. John Woods bought a lot of stock hogs for $1.40. Dave Prewitt bought some fat hogs of M. Herrin for $1.25. C. H. Harris sold his hickory timber to John Watts at $1.50 per cord, and others have sold to him at 75c and $1. The Baptist preacher from Stanford will preach at our schoolhouse Sunday evening.

—EX-U. S. Senator Rollins, of New Hampshire, died Wednesday.

From the Needles to Sandy Hook—3,100 miles—6 days, 21 hours and 37 minutes. This is the best time ever made by an ocean steamer over that course, and it was accomplished by the new Hamburg American twin screw steamer Columbia, which arrived Saturday.

—Gov. Nichols, of Louisiana, is determined to put a stop to the indiscriminate lynchings in that State, by having each person engaged in them arrested for murder. A few days ago Felix Key, colored, was taken from jail and hung for killing his wife, and now 20 or more of the men engaged in the lynching are in jail.

—The Old, Old Story.—A little cough, a feeling ill, A headache or a little chills; A slower walk; a quickened breath; A frequent talk of coming death; No strength to rise from day. From loving eyes he fades away. Now lifts me the feeble head, The struggle's over—the man is dead.

Such is the fatal progress of consumption. How often is repeated the old, old story. Yet not half so often as it was. Before the knowledge came to mankind that there was a discovery in medical science by which the dread disease could be arrested in its early stages and the patient restored to health. This wonderful remedy is Dr. Pierce's golden Medical Discovery.
